BEACHES ON FULIDHOO

You can chill out at the dedicated bikini beach and swim in the clear waters of the lagoon. The high season is from December to April, so it's the best time to visit for swimming and doing excursions.

Fulidhoo Bikini Beach. This is the main beach on the island, and it's where visitors can swim, sunbathe, and relax. The beach is surrounded by palm trees and crystal-clear water, making it an idyllic spot to spend the day.

Turtles Beach. This beach is located on the southern side of the island and is known for its calm and shallow waters, making it an ideal spot for snorkeling and swimming. Visitors can often spot sea turtles swimming in the area.

Alimas Beach. This beach is located on the eastern side of the island and is known for its pristine white sand and turquoise water. It's a popular spot for swimming and sunbathing.

Ohboy Beach. This is a small and secluded beach located on the western side of the island, surrounded by coconut trees and mangroves. It's a perfect spot for those seeking privacy and tranquility.

FULIDHOO HOUSE REEF

The house reef in Fulidhoo is located on the eastern side of the island and is easily accessible from the beach. Visitors can simply walk into the water from the beach and start exploring the reef. The house reef in Fulidhoo is teeming with a variety of marine life, including colorful coral, reef fish, sea turtles, and even small sharks. The waters around Fulidhoo's house reef are teeming with a variety of reef fish, including angelfish, clownfish, parrotfish, and butterflyfish.

SCUBA DIVING ON FULIDHOO

Scuba diving is the main thing to do in Fulidhoo. Situated at the heart of channel diving territory, Vaavu atoll is well known for being home to many large pelagic creatures; tens of grey reef sharks, nurse sharks, manta rays, eagle rays and vast schools of big eye trevallies and barracuda, color-soft and hard corals.

PRACTICAL TRAVEL TIPS

There are no ATMs on the island, so bring USD in cash. You can also withdraw cash at Male Airport, and credit cards are widely accepted.

Mosquito Vigilance

Unlike resort islands that fumigate against mosquitoes, Fulidhoo takes a different approach. Be sure to pack your mosquito repellent and use it, especially during dining experiences in restaurants at all times of the day.

Don't let the buzzing companions spoil your island adventure.

ISLAND RULES

What are the important rules on the island?

Whereas pork and alcohol are permitted on resort islands, they are not permitted in local islands, where Maldivians live. Also, guests are advised to cover from shoulder to knees in the public areas of Fulidhoo, although are welcome to wear swimwear on the allocated guest beach. There is a bikini beach where it's possible to be in swimwear, and it shouldn't be a problem on the hotel's shore either. We will visit NOEE Island, which is a resort island, you can drink alcohol here.
